

PHILOSOPHY (PHIL)

PHIL 431 Aesthetics (3 Credits)Lecture: 3, Lab: 0

Aesthetics (3) Critical examination of classical and contemporary aesthetic theories and their relevance for students' aesthetic experiences.

Three hours of lecture per week.

College/School: Liberal Arts & Behavioral ScieDepartment: Department of EnglishPHIL 1301 Introduction To Philosophy (3 Credits)*Lecture: 3

A study of major issues in philosophy and/or the work of major philosophical figures in philosophy. Topics in philosophy may include theories of reality, theories of knowledge, theories of value, and their practical applications.

College/School: Liberal Arts & Behavioral ScieDepartment: Department of English